

u. Changes in Vision

MODULE 2

Causes

The lens of the eye can swell because of the increase in body fluids during pregnancy. This may have a short-term effect on your vision. The cornea on the outside of the eye can also swell causing problems with contact lenses. You do not have to purchase new eyeglasses or contact lenses because this effect usually disappears after delivery.

