

c. How Your Baby Looks

MODULE 7

New parents are often surprised by the way their baby looks. During your pregnancy, you have been thinking and dreaming about your baby.

Love does not turn on and off but grows over time. As you spend time with your baby, touching, stroking, cuddling, feeding, and just looking at the tiny hands and feet, you will slowly and surely find a lot to love.

The following exercise will help you become familiar with your baby's appearance.
