

e. Comfort Measures

MODULE 7

Breathing, relaxation, finding comfortable positions, and massage will all help you feel better during labour.

Remember that labour is different for each woman. There are no good or bad techniques; only techniques that are more or less effective. Try different ones to find what works best for you.