

d. Movements Babies Make

MODULE 8

Newborns have a certain amount of control over their muscles. They can move their arms and legs, hold your finger, and turn their head toward the breast.

Babies' heads are wobbly and need to be supported when picked up. Babies cannot balance their heads well until they are a few months old.

